Subject: Free Concert on the Senior Center Beach

(Tues. July 13, 2021, Traverse City, MI) -- On Saturday, July 31 at 7:30 p.m. the Senior Center in Traverse City will host The Archipelago Project on the beach. The audience will be delighted at the roughly 30-piece ensemble playing everything from New Orleans jazz to classical music.

The Archipelago Project, founded by Traverse City Natives Dan Trahey and Garrett Mendez, brings some of the most exciting and diverse young talent from across the country each year to perform across northern Michigan. Students from the project have gone on to attend Juillard, Yale, Peabody and many other prestigious colleges to become leaders in the music industry.

“Our summer concert series has been very popular this year,” said Michelle Krumm Grand Traverse County Senior Center Network Manager. “A concert on the beach is a perfect summer evening -- a spectacular view of the bay while enjoying live music is hard to beat.”

The Archipelago Project is a non-profit music education organization dedicated to advocating musical arts through performance, residency, and consultation. Archipelago’s mission is to connect, educate, and inspire audiences from diverse ethnic, geographic, and socioeconomic populations. The organization is comprised of highly trained musicians, teachers, and artists from the United States and the world. Archipelago immerses audiences in diverse programming that spans musical styles from around the globe.

All are welcomed to bring a chair or blanket and enjoy this free concert on the beach. If it rains, the concert will be rescheduled for the following day, Sunday, August 1 at 7:30 p.m.. For more information call 231-922-4911 or email mgoetz@gtcountymi.gov
