INTRODUCTION

The Thirteenth Circuit Court for the State of Michigan is pleased to present to you our annual report for 2018. The report is distributed in hard copy to local stakeholders, elected officials, and the State Court Administrative Office. The report is available electronically on the court's website: www.13thcircuitcourt.org. Those who review the report will have an understanding of the Court's finances, caseloads, Friend of the Court efforts, and Alternative Dispute Resolution during 2018. The report also notes important staff developments and matters involving the local bar.

During 2018, the Court was able to manage its caseload within the timeframes mandated by the Supreme Court. One reason for the Court's efficiency is the success of the Alternative Dispute Resolution program. In 2018, the Court's civil facilitative mediation process resolved 69% of the cases referred, saving litigants time and money. During that same year, facilitative mediation resolved 84% of the domestic relations matters referred.

The success of the facilitative mediation program is not a new development. What is new is that the Court is taking note of some of the partners who have led to that success over the years. The Court created an award this year honoring the mediator of the year. The inaugural recipient of the award is John Blakeslee, who has served as a mediator since 2000. The report provides more details on Mr. Blakeslee's service, along with local attorneys who have received other important honors from the local bar association.

We wish to thank those who have assisted our efforts to provide justice throughout 2018. The Court has many responsibilities that require the collaboration, consideration and support of our partners. We appreciate your assistance in helping us meet our obligations during 2018.

CASE MANAGEMENT

The Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Court serves Antrim, Grand Traverse, and Leelanau Counties. The Circuit Court handles all civil cases with claims in excess of $25,000, all felony criminal cases, requests for injunctive relief and domestic relations matters. Additionally, the Judges hear cases appealed from other trial courts or from administrative agencies. The Circuit Court Judges travel monthly to Bellaire and Suttons Bay to preside over matters in Antrim and Leelanau Counties. Judge Power and Judge Elsenheimer alternate as the Thirteenth Circuit Court's Chief Judge.

The Family Divisions of the Thirteenth Circuit Court handle all juvenile criminal cases, child abuse and neglect cases, guardianships of juveniles and adoption proceedings. The Probate Judge for each County is also the presiding Judge of the Family Division in the county where he or she was elected.

The Circuit Court follows the mandated timelines schedule as delineated in the Michigan Court Rules and Administrative Orders to efficiently manage and dispose of its cases. Once a new case has been opened, the Court issues a Scheduling Order providing time guidelines for the processing of the case and establishing dates when future actions should begin or be completed with regard to the case. The primary goal of the Court Administrator's staff is to ensure that cases are kept current and the docket remains up-to-date.

CIVIL CASELOAD

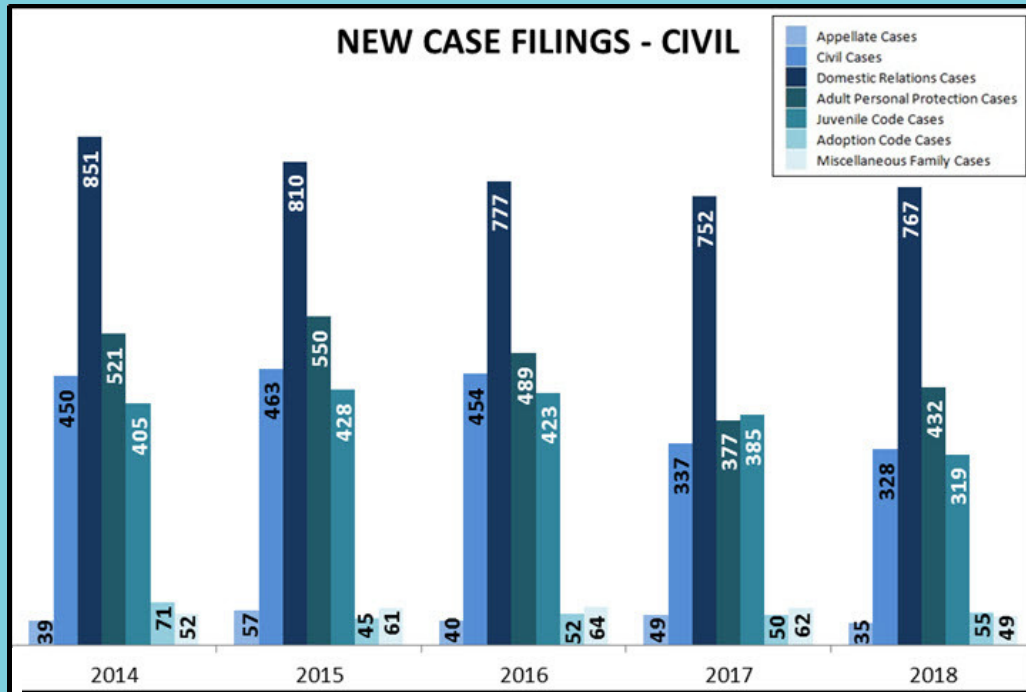

Circuit Court cases are separated into the following categories: Appellate, Civil, Domestic Relations, Adult Personal Protection, Proceedings Under the Juvenile Code, Proceedings Under the Adoption Code, Miscellaneous Family/Ancillary. The Appellate category includes Criminal Appeals, Civil Appeals, Agency Appeals (Administrative Agency, Employment Security Commission, Secretary of State, and Parole Board decisions), and Other Appeals (habeas corpus, superintending control and writs).

The Civil category includes General Civil (business claims, condemnation, employment discrimination, environments, forfeiture claims, housing & real estate, contracts, labor relations, antitrust/franchising/trade regulations, corporate receivership and general civil), Auto Negligence (property damage, no-fault insurance and personal injury), Other Civil Damage (medical malpractice, other professional malpractice, other personal injury, products liability, dramship act and other damage suits), and Other Civil (proceedings to restore/establish/correct records, claim & delivery, receivers in supplemental proceedings, supplemental proceedings and miscellaneous proceedings). The Domestic Relations category includes Divorce with Minor Children, Divorce Without Children, Paternity, UIFSA (assist with discovery and establishment), Support, and Other Domestic (custody and other domestic relations matters. The Adult Personal Protection category includes Domestic Relations and Non-Domestic Relations. The Juvenile Code category include Designated Juvenile Offenses, Delinquency Proceedings, Traffic and Local Ordinance, Child Protective Proceedings and Juvenile Personal Protection Actions. The Adoption Code category includes Petitions for Adoptions (adult, agency international, direct placement, relative, safe delivery of newborn, non-relative guardian, step-parent and other). The Miscellaneous Family/Ancillary category includes emancipation of a minor, infectious disease, safe delivery of newborn child, name change, young adult voluntary foster care, violation proceedings on out-of-county personal protection orders, adult conservatorship, minor conservatorship, developmental disability guardianship, adult guardianship, limited guardianship of adult, minor guardianship, limited guardianship of minor, protective orders, judicial admission and mental commitment.

CIVIL CASELOAD

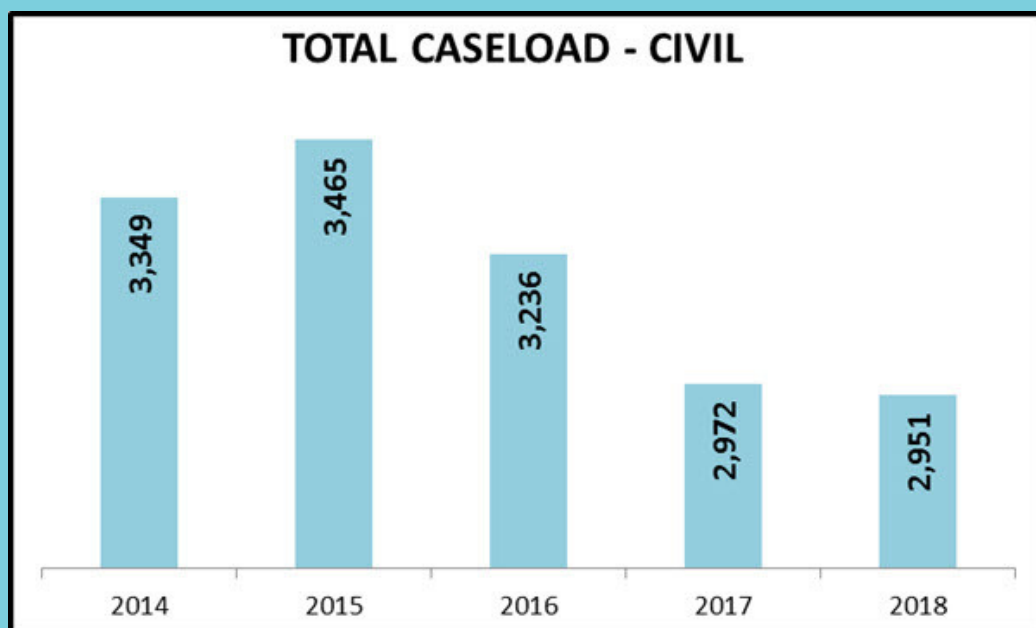

NEW CIVIL CASE FILINGS

The following bar graph depicts the annual new civil filings for the Thirteenth Circuit Court over the previous five years.

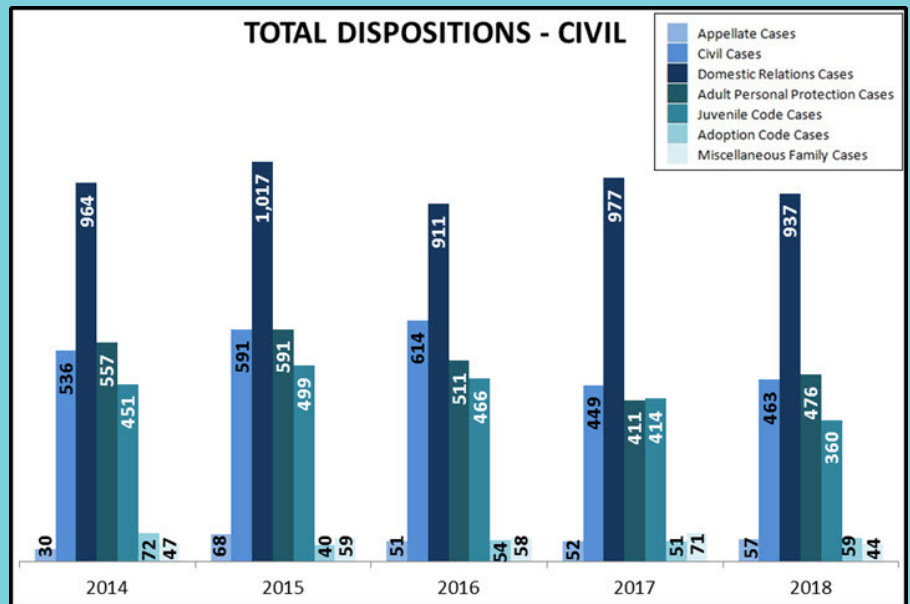

TOTAL CIVIL CASELOAD

In 2018, there were a total of 1,985 new civil case filings in the Thirteenth Circuit Court. This is a decrease from the number of new civil cases filed in the previous year.

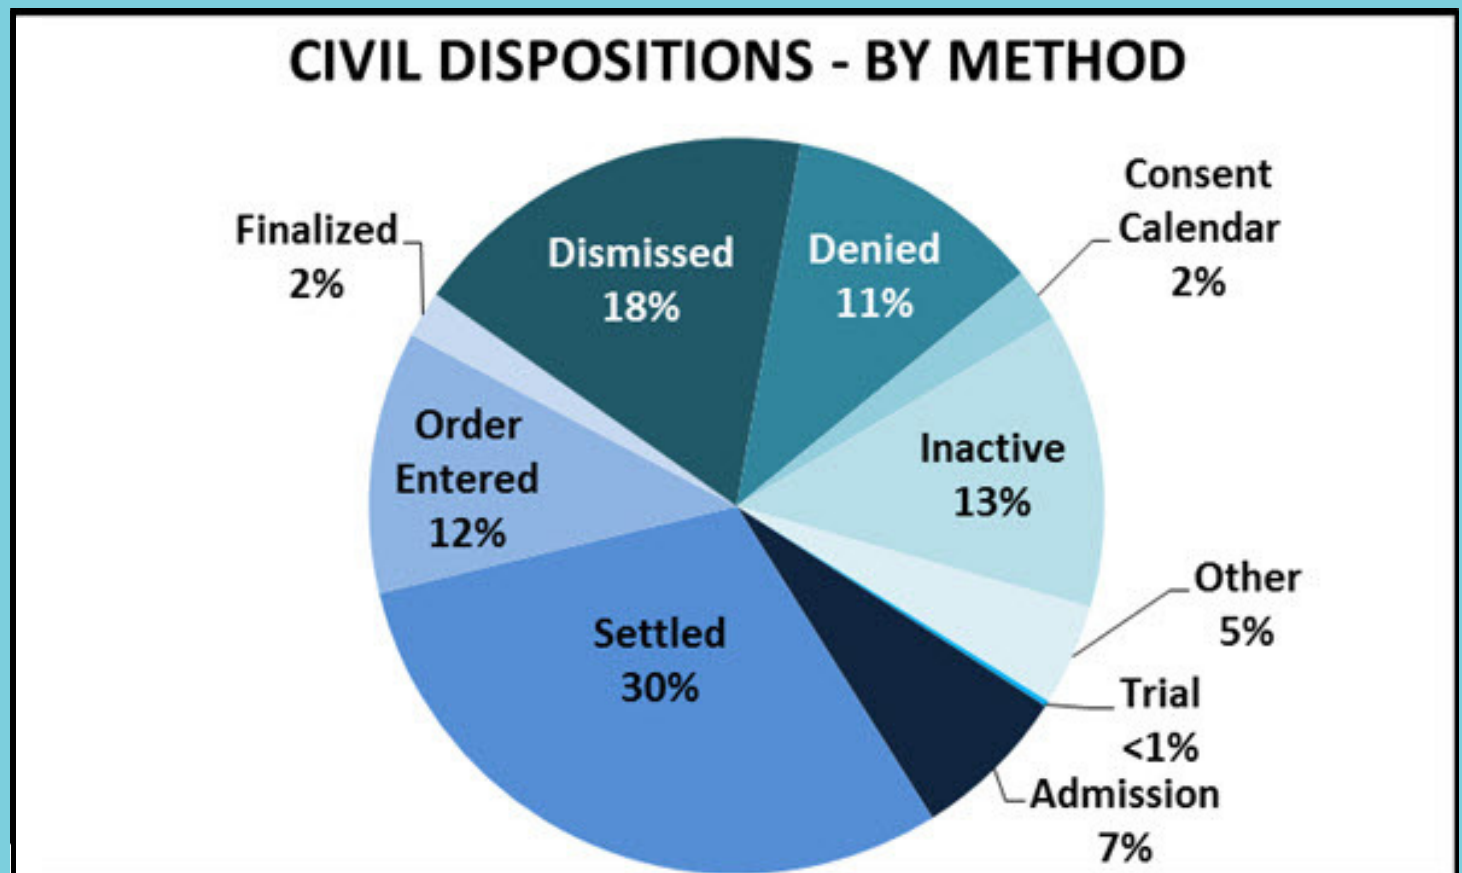

CIVIL DISPOSITIONS

The following chart compares disposition methods for appellate, civil, domestic relations, adult personal protection orders, juvenile code, adoption code and miscellaneous family/ancillary cases in 2018. The term "Settled" includes cases that were defaulted, uncontested or settled. "Trial" includes both jury and bench trials. The term "Order Entered" includes cases where orders were entered ex parte, after a hearing and after a denial.

The term "Dismissed" includes cases that were dismissed or withdrawn by the party or dismissed by the Court. The term "Denied" includes cases where the request was denied either ex parte or after a hearing. Finally, the "Other" category includes cases that were transferred, withdrawn by the petitioner, not authorized, deferred, the case type was changed or the manner of disposition was not reported.

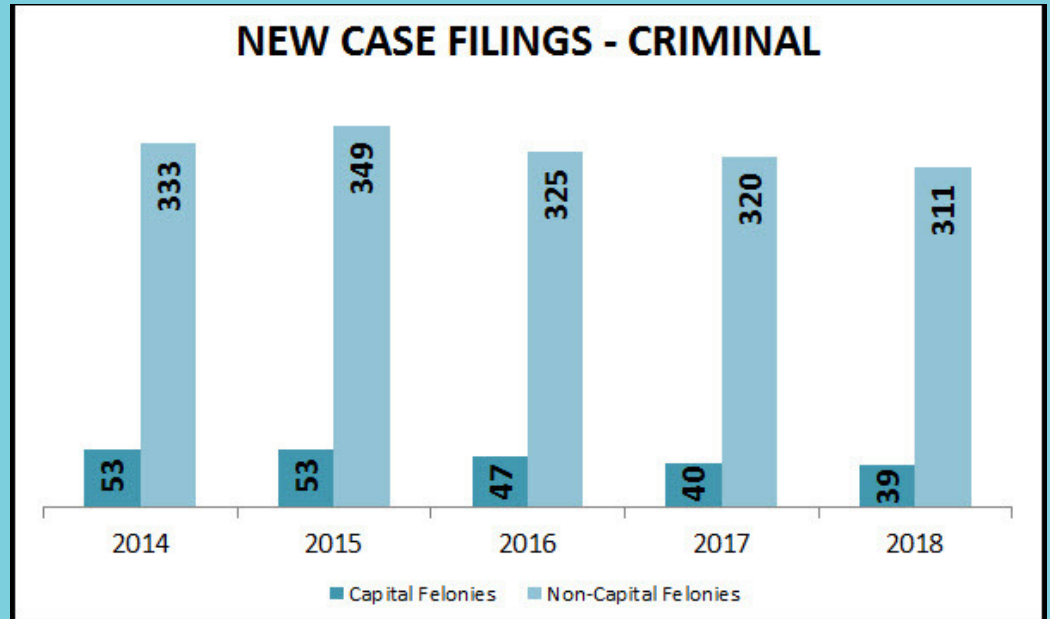

CRIMINAL CASELOAD

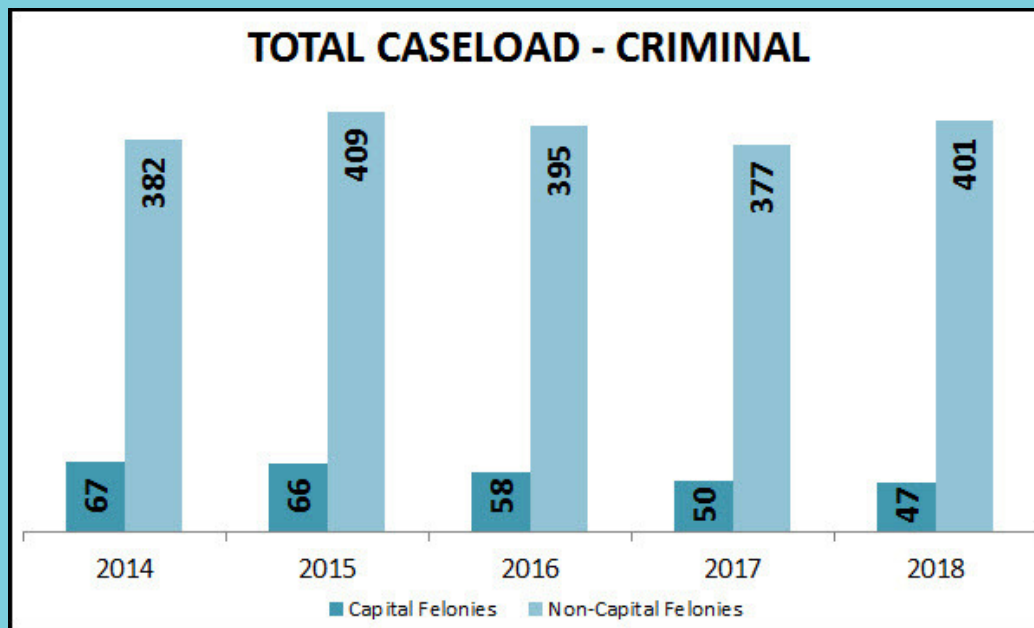

NEW CRIMINAL FILINGS

Circuit Court criminal cases are separated into two categories: capital felonies and non-capital felonies. Capital felonies are cases in which a life sentence is possible and a larger number of preemptory jury challenges are provided during trial. In non-capital felony cases, a defendant is subject to prison time, but generally for a period less than life. In 2018, the number of newly filed capital and non-capital felony cases decreased in the Thirteenth Circuit Court.

TOTAL CRIMINAL CASELOAD

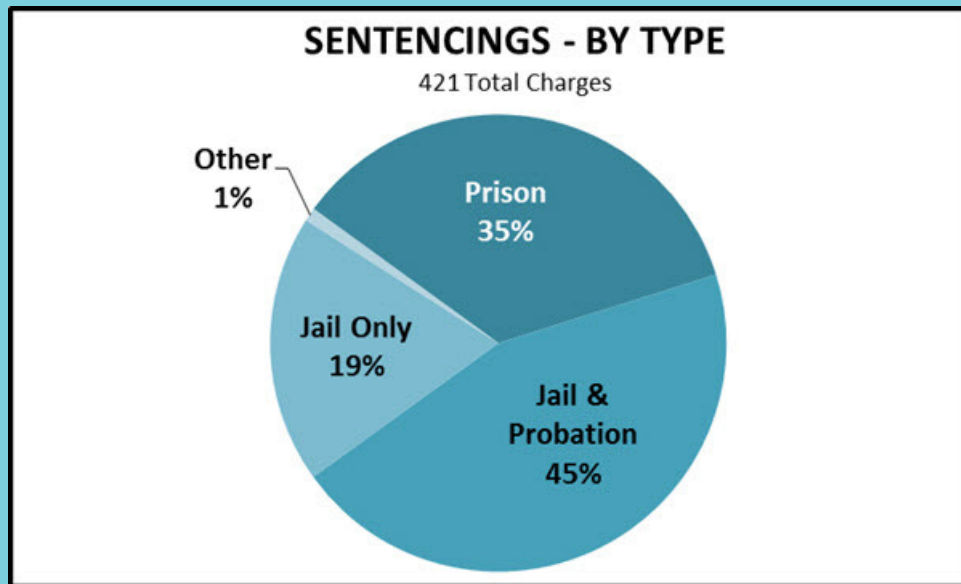

The Circuit Court's total caseload consists of cases that were still pending when the year began, cases that were re-opened, and all newly filed cases. In 2018, the Thirteenth Circuit Court's total criminal caseload for capital felonies decreased, while the total criminal caseload for non-capital felonies increased.

CRIMINAL CASELOAD

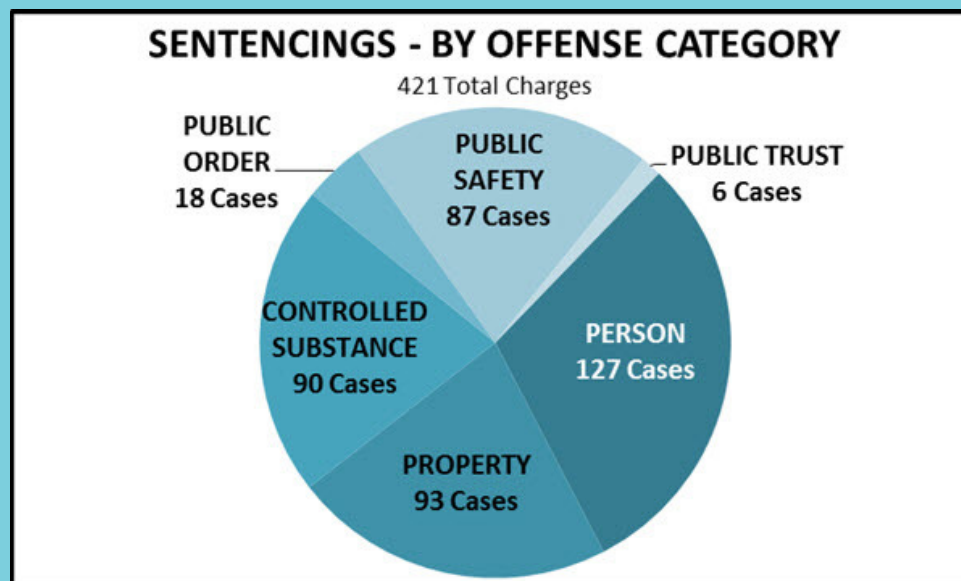

CRIMINAL DISPOSITIONS

In 2018, the Court disposed of 419 criminal cases. Guilty pleas resulted in the greatest number of dispositions, with the Court receiving 44 guilty pleas in Antrim County, 211 in Grand Traverse County and 19 in Leelanau County.

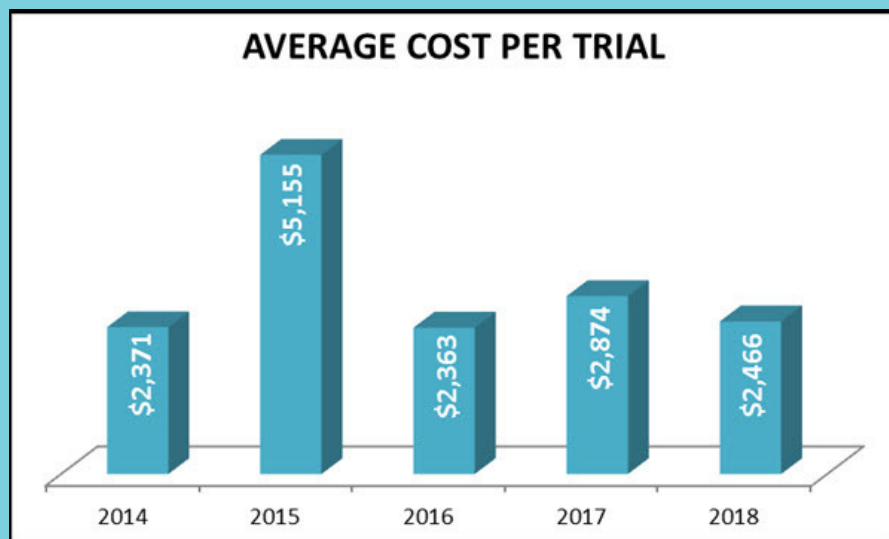

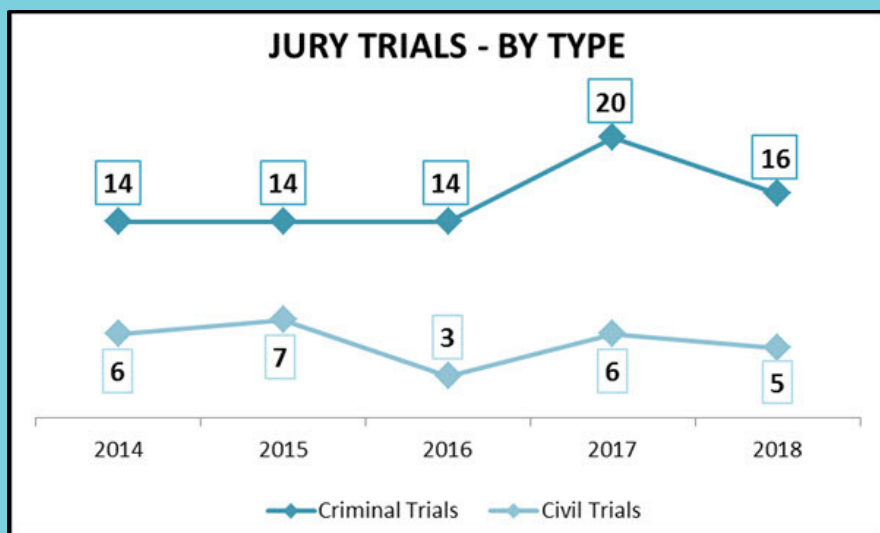

CRIMINAL SENTENCINGS

In 2018, the Court sentenced 289 defendants, issuing sentences on 421 total counts in 310 cases. There were more total sentencings than total cases and/or defendants because certain defendants were charged with several counts in a single case and some defendants were charged in multiple cases. One defendant has cases in both Grand Traverse and Antrim Counties. The following charts display sentencings and re-sentencing dispositions by type and by offense category.

JURY TRIALS

To qualify to serve as a juror, an individual must be a United States citizen, at least 18 years of age, a resident of the county issuing the summons, conversant in the English language, physically and mentally able to carry out the functions of a juror and cannot have committed a felony. Anyone with a valid Michigan Driver's license is a potential juror in the County where they reside. The process for selecting potential jurors begins with the Secretary of State providing a list of eligible jurors to the county jury board. Antrim, Grand Traverse and Leelanau Counties each have individual 3-member jury boards, appointed by that County's Board of Commissioners, with members serving 6-year terms. The jury boards then send juror questionnaires to the prospective jurors in their respective counties. Once the questionnaires are returned, the jury board randomly selects prospective jurors for their Circuit Court, District Court and Probate Court cases.

“I felt you ran a very good courtroom. You kept discipline and moved the case along. Your jury instructions were clear and at no time during deliberations did a juror indicate any confusion as to the meaning of your instructions.”
- Anonymous juror, Judge Thomas G. Power's December 3, 2018 trial

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

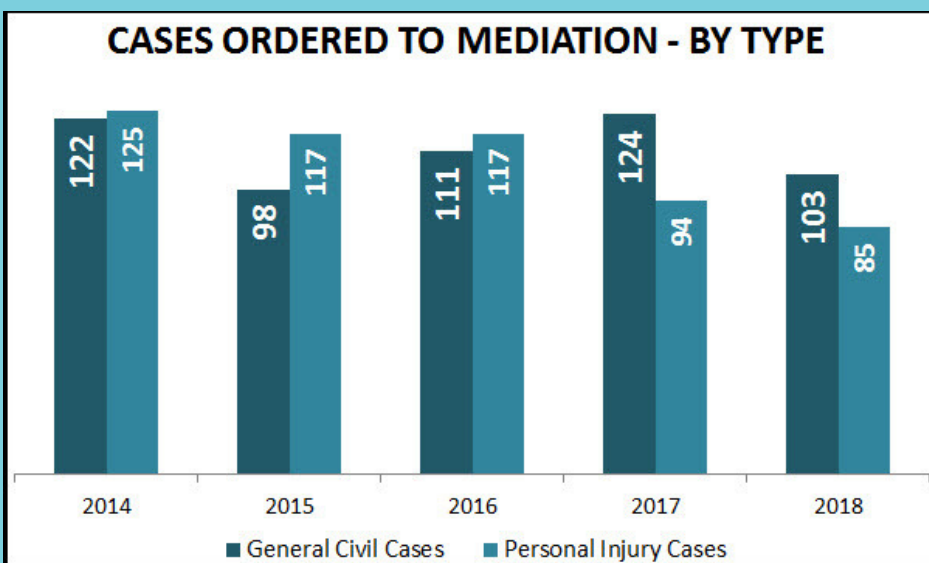

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), a process designed to resolve a legal dispute in the place of court adjudication, includes facilitative mediation, domestic relations mediation, and settlement conferences. ADR may also include case evaluation, a non-binding process in which a panel of experienced attorneys assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of the parties' legal positions and assign a value to the case. All civil cases are subject to the ADR process unless otherwise provided by statute or court rule. ADR helps reduce costs to taxpayers due to a reduction in the overall need for jurors, compensation for lay and expert witnesses and the need for additional judges and/or courtrooms.

CIVIL FACILITATIVE MEDIATION

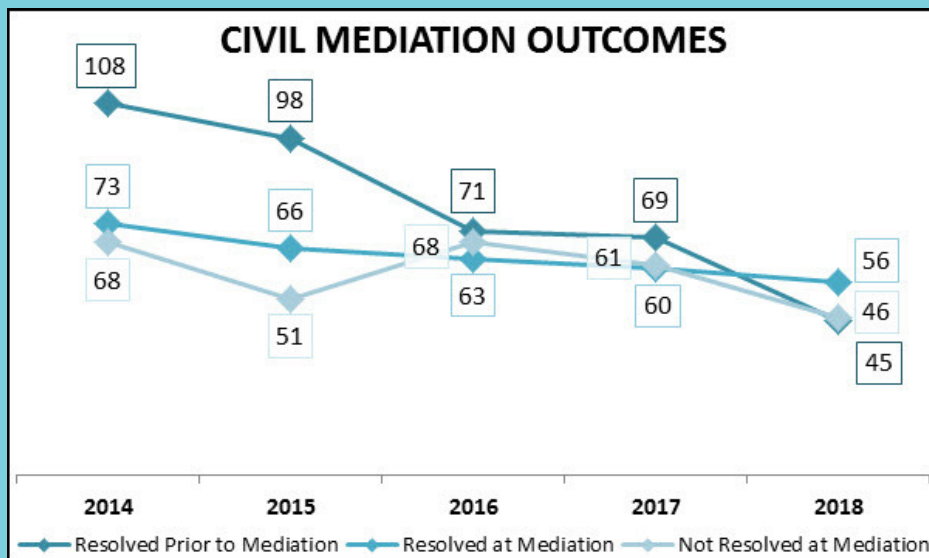

Facilitative mediation is an alternative dispute resolution process in which a neutral third party facilitates confidential communications between the parties in an attempt to help them reach a mutually agreeable resolution. In mediation, solutions are generated by the parties; whereas in litigation, the resolution of a conflict is imposed upon the parties by the Court. In 2018, 188 total cases were ordered into mediation, with 143 cases actually mediated. The Court selected a mediator in 9 cases.

IN 2018, 69% OF CIVIL CASES WERE RESOLVED BY THE END OF THE MEDIATION PROCESS

CASES ORDERED TO MEDIATION - BY TYPE

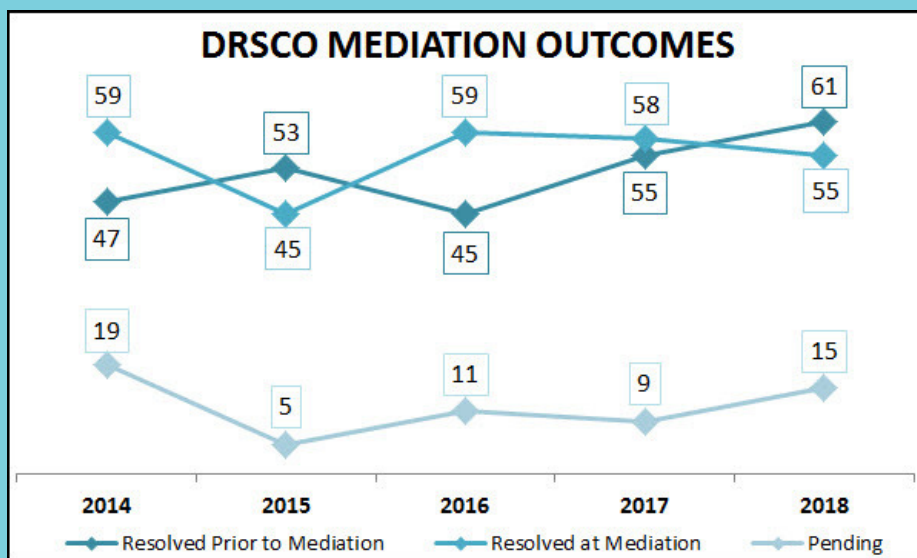

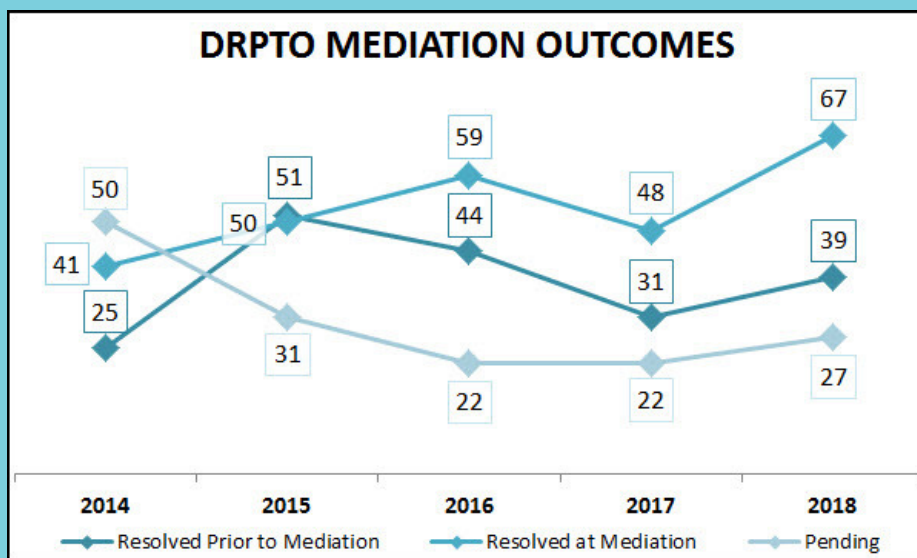

CIVIL MEDIATION OUTCOMES

DOMESTIC RELATIONS FACILITATIVE MEDIATION

In 2018, 365 cases were ordered to facilitative mediation via a Domestic Relations Scheduling Conference Order (DRSCO) or a Domestic Relations Pre-Trial Order (DRPTO). DRSCOs are generated by the Court when a divorce matter is filed, whereas DRPTOs can be generated either before or after a Judgment of Divorce has been entered when there are child related issues such as, paternity, support, custody and UIFSA registration. In 2018, the Court selected a mediator for the parties in 85 cases.

MEDIATOR OF THE YEAR: JOHN R. BLAKESLEE

The Court created an award this year honoring the mediator of the year. The inaugural recipient of the award is John Blakeslee, who has served as a mediator since 2000 and has mediated approximation 500 cases for the 13th Circuit Court.

COURT FINANCES

The Inter-County Operating Agreement allows financial and administrative responsibilities between the Counties and Courts amongst all three counties - Antrim, Grand Traverse, and Leelanau. Members of the joint Judicial Commission include the Circuit Court Judges, Court Administrator, Board Chairperson, Chairperson for the Finance/Ways and Means Committee, County Administrator/Coordinator and the Chief Administrative Fiscal Officers in Antrim, Grand Traverse, & Leelanau Counties.

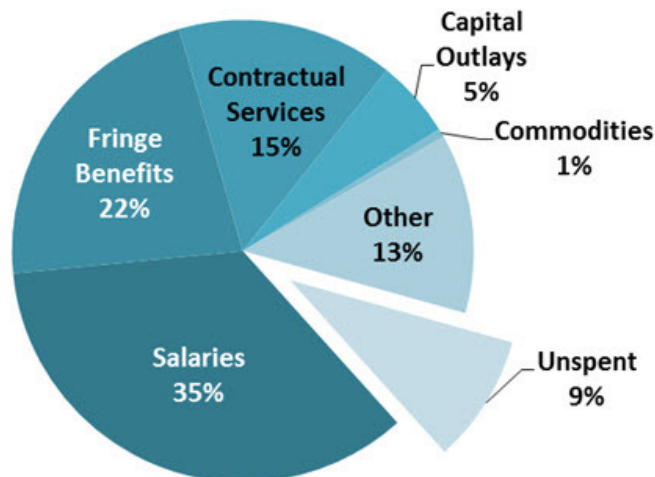

The Court collects fines, costs, court-appointed attorneys' fees, restitution, and crime victim fund payments from convicted felons. The funds collected are used to help support the public libraries, assist in defraying the costs of providing court-appointed counsel for indigent defendants and serve as reimbursement to crime victims for losses they may have suffered.

In 2018, the Thirteenth Circuit Court collected $253,137 in criminal restitution for distribution to local crime victims.

COURT FINANCES

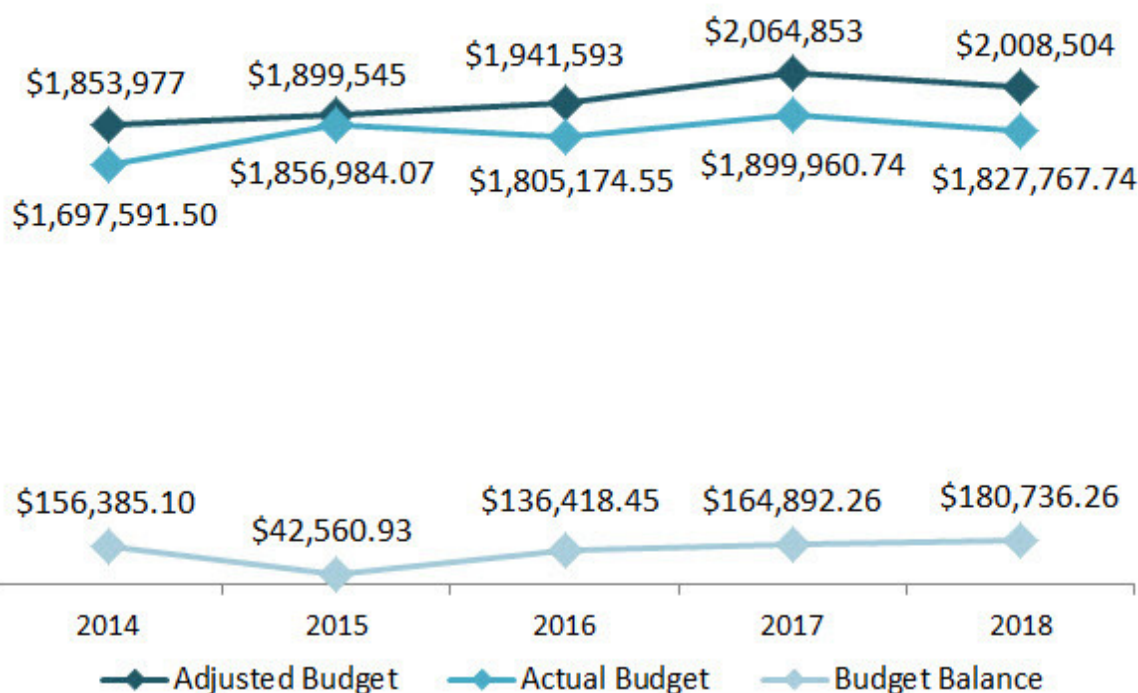

EXPENDITURES - BY CATEGORY

Each county within the Thirteenth Circuit maintains its own budget and is responsible for the processing, auditing, verification and payment of operating expenses. Grand Traverse County oversees the Circuit Court Operating Fund, which pays for 'cost-shared' expenses, such as salaries, fringe benefits, office space, computer data processing, office supplies and other capital expenditures between all three counties. Each individual county separately pays its 'cost-direct' expenses, like court-appointed attorneys' fees, jury fees, witness fees, transcript fees and courthouse security. Additional revenue comes from filing fees, and court costs assessed by the County Clerks' Offices and the State of Michigan. Expenditures are divided into 6 categories: (1) salaries for Judicial, Administrative and Friend of the Court staff; (2) fringe benefits for judicial and administrative staffs, including FICA; (3) contractual services, including payments for defense counsel, transcripts, juror compensation, juror mileage, interpreters, professional services and other items necessary for administration and operation of the Courts; (4) commodities such as postage and office supplies; (5) capital outlays including legal reference material, office equipment and office furniture; and (6) other expenses like equipment rentals, printing, utilities, law books, continuing education, and liability insurance.

ANNUAL EXPENDITURES

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS PROBATION AND PAROLE

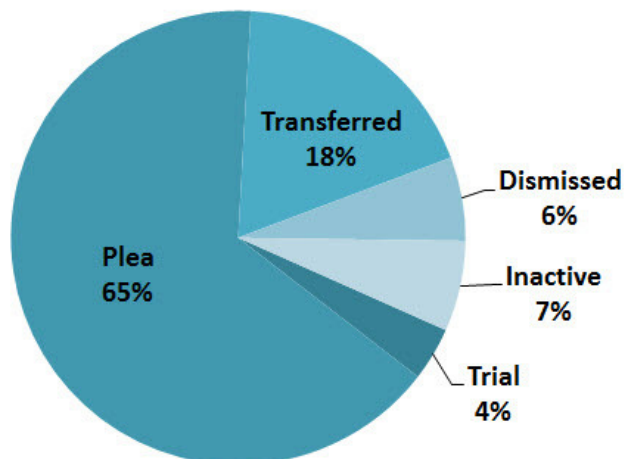

As employees of the Michigan Department of Corrections (MDOC) assigned to local courts, staff supervise convicted offenders rising within the Thirteenth Circuit Court's jurisdiction. The probation/parole staff maintain close working relations with court personnel, law enforcement, Community Corrections, and many other areas partners to ensure offenders are well supervised and to assure public safety. In 2018, the MDOC was partially staffed with nine agents and two secretaries covering the tri-county court. The MDOC averaged a caseload of 450 cases per month between the three counties in 2018, specifically 68 cases in Antrim County, 342 cases in Grand Traverse County and 40 cases in Leelanau County. In addition to supervising MDOC clients, each probation/parole agent must complete a Pre-Sentence Investigation Report (PSIR) for every Circuit Court conviction as well as supplemental reports for follow ups. The PSIR includes the scoring from Sentencing Guidelines and a detailed summary of the individual's history which is then used by the Circuit Court Judges as a tool to assist in determining the appropriate sentence for the crime committed and the specific individual offender. In 2018, 264 new PSIRs were written for the Thirteenth Circuit Court.

MIFILE: 13TH CIRCUIT COURT CHOSEN AS PILOT COURT

The State Court Administrative Office and ImageSoft initiated efforts to transition five e-Filing pilot courts, the 13th Circuit Court being one, to the MiFILE system. To establish a framework for expanding MiFILE to all courts, SCAO recommended court rule amendments fundamental to the use of MiFILE and an e-Filing environment. These rules were adopted by the Supreme Court and are effective January 1, 2018.

2018 was our first full year under the new MiFILE e-filing system. The 13th Judicial Circuit Court e-Filing program transitioned to MiFILE, Michigan's statewide e-Filing program sponsored by the SCAO. MiFILE utilizes TrueFiling, a 24x7 web-based e-File and e-Service solution for courts, law firms, attorneys, and self-represented filers.

E-Filing is the technology that allows litigants to electronically file case documents, such as pleadings, motions, and petitions. Courts across the country who have adopted this technology have improved service to the public, made access to courts easier, provided flexibility to litigants, and become more efficient through electronic receipt, processing and storage. The purpose of this system is to provide litigants the means to electronically file documents in any Michigan court, 24 hours a day, without traveling to a courthouse and waiting in line. It also provides litigants a means to serve one another with documents and to electronically receive notifications and documents from the courts.
